

June 30, 2016

Subject: Consumer Information Notice

Greetings from Student Financial Services at the University of Virginia.

Federal regulations set forth by the Higher Education Act, as amended, require the disclosure of certain consumer information each term to prospective and enrolled students. The University provides these consumer information disclosures on the Student Financial Services website at <http://sfs.virginia.edu/consumer>.

If you need assistance obtaining the information listed on the website or to receive a paper copy of the information, please contact Student Financial Services by phone at (434) 982-6000 or by email at sfs@virginia.edu.