Parent Non-Tax Filer Form
2017-2018

Purpose of Form

Generally, the Parent Non-Tax Filer Form is requested to confirm gross earnings that a parent may have received in 2015 even though that parent may not have filed a tax return. This form may also be requested if the parent was erroneously reported to be a tax filer on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and/or the CSS PROFILE.

General Instructions

If your parent or step-parent is required to file a U.S. federal income tax return for 2015, you should not submit the Parent Non-Tax Filer Form. Instead, you should submit a signed copy of your parent(s)' U.S. federal income tax return.

If your parent or step-parent is required to file a foreign income tax return for 2015, you should not submit the Parent Non-Tax Filer Form. Instead, you should submit a signed copy of your parent(s)' foreign income tax return, translated into English with the currency notated.

If one or both of your parents were not employed and had no income earned from work in 2015, check the applicable box(es) to indicated this.

To complete this form, list each source of income received by your parent(s) in 2015. Examples of income include earnings from work, social security benefits, disability benefits, child support, retirement and/or pension distributions. Income received from U.S. and foreign sources should be reported. Please report the gross amount received from each employer for all of 2015 in the second column. For each employer who issued your parent(s) a W-2 in 2015, please write "Yes" in the third column and attach a copy of the W-2 form. For each employer who did not issue a W-2 in 2015, please write "No" in the third column.

You should list every employer even if they did not issue an IRS W-2 form. Attach additional pages if necessary.

Forms received without the appropriate signature(s) or with missing information or missing pages are considered incomplete and must be resubmitted. This will delay the evaluation of your financial aid eligibility and the awarding of your financial aid.
