Authorization to Release Financial Information

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 is designed to protect the privacy of a student’s educational records. These confidential records may include, but are not limited to, financial aid, scholarship and fellowship, and student account/billing information (the “Information”). The Information will not be released to anyone other than the student without written consent from the student. By signing this form, the student authorizes university personnel to release the Information to the designated person(s).

Student Name: _____

University or SIS ID Number: _____

I authorize university personnel to discuss information for the purposes of understanding and meeting university related financial obligations with me (the student) as well as the person(s) listed on this form.

I understand that the person(s) listed on this form will have access via telephone, in person, mail, e-mail, or fax to the Information that may include the following:

- My financial aid and scholarship records, including processing and eligibility status as well as award types and amounts. This information will not include specific parental income or asset information.
- My university tuition billing account and statements, including credits and debits posted to that account and any refund amounts I may have received.
- My university Housing, Dining, Telecommunications, Bookstore, Cavalier Advantage and any other financial obligations, which may include amounts owed as well as amounts paid.

This authorization form does not allow the University to release specific academic information.
